The Economic Self-Sufficiency Program helps to promote strong and economically self-sufficient communities by determining eligibility for food, cash and medical assistance for individuals and families on the road to economic recovery.

The Food Assistance Program helps individuals and families purchase nutritional foods needed to maintain and promote good health.

The Medicaid Program provides medical assistance to individuals and families to cover or assist in the cost of services that are medically necessary.

The Temporary Cash Assistance Program provides financial assistance to pregnant women in their third trimester and families with dependent children to assist in the payment of rent, utilities and other household expenses.

Applying for Assistance
You may apply for assistance from any computer with an internet connection at www.myflorida.com/accessflorida or at one of our community partner sites. You may also complete a paper application that can be mailed, faxed or returned to a local customer service center. Find a community partner or local service center by searching www.dcf.state.fl.us/programs/access/map.shtml.

Customer Call Center Number: 1-866-762-2237
8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday-Friday
(Automated Information Available 24/7)
For hearing or speech impaired, dial 711 to use Relay or use:
1-800-955-8770 or 1-800-955-8771 (TTY)
The Economic Self-Sufficiency Program helps to promote strong and economically self-sufficient communities by determining eligibility for food, cash and medical assistance for individuals and families on the road to economic recovery.

You may need the following information for all individuals for whom you are applying.

• Social Security number and date of birth.

• Income information such as job, child support or any other sources.

• Resource or asset information such as checking, savings accounts, vehicles, homes, land or life insurance.

• Housing expenses such as rent or utilities.

• Health insurance information.

• All U.S. citizens applying for, or receiving Medical Assistance, including children, are required to provide proof of U.S. citizenship and identity.